CANADA (Quebec) - THE ROAD OF THE FROZEN NORTH

Director(s): Hervé REBILLON

Writer(s): Hervé RÉBILLION

After Australia and Bolivia, the latest film from the collection "Truck Stop" goes to Canada. Forestville, near Baie Comeau on the banks of the Saint Laurent river, is right in the heart of Canada's 'paper country'. Paper mills provide the economic backbone of the whole region. David Morneau has been on the road for over 29 years, collecting timber in the great frozen North, enjoying the glorious setting, reminiscent of Jeremiah Johnson or Jack London. He is our 'guide' to the mysteries and the splendours of the frozen North.
