DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

Director(s): Marie-Monique ROBIN

Writer(s): Marie-Monique ROBIN

They are being locked up, slapped, beaten, sexually abused or even mutilated : according to official sources, one in five women in Europe falls victim to domestic violence. Three million alone in France.
An in-depth investigation by Marie-Monique Robin on a problem that touches all social classes today. For a whole year, from Paris to Belfort, she followed specialised teams from the police or the medical services from the "Hôtel Dieu" hospital. She interviewed the women who fled from their homes, but also the men who beat them. She talked to judges and psychologists...
At the heart of the film, the unbelievable story of Roselyne, a senior executive and mother of two young children, who fought for two years to obtain justice.
