DRESS IN THAILAND

Director(s): Solenn HONORINE

Writer(s): Solenn HONORINE

When you wander through the streets of Bangkok, you'll probably meet a lot of people dressed in Western style. Others, a little older, feel more comfortable in their peasant clothes. Uniforms are proudly displayed everywhere as well as mini skirts and mini shorts. Bonze and Buddhist nuns dress in orange... No doubt about it: you are in Thailand, land of strict dress codes.

The Thai people demonstrate their attachment to the King by wearing the famous yellow polo shirt - the King's colour - on Monday. The other days of the week also have their colour: pink for Tuesday, green on Wednesdays, Thursday is orange etc... A colour-coded country.

Categorie(s): Discovery & Nature, Travel, Sport & Adventure, Collections - Series

Tag(s): Ethnography/Civilization, Fashion, people & places

Producer(s): POINT DU JOUR

Coproducer(s): ARTE France

Length: 1x26 / Format: One-off

Original version: French

Versions available: English / International

Nationality: France, 2009

Rights: all media, world

Support(s): SD â€“ Digital 16/9

http://www.pointdujour-international.com/catalogueFiche.php?idFiche=38133&lang=en