IRAN AT A TURNING POINT

Director(s): Vincent DE COINTET, Antoine MARIOTTI

Writer(s): Vincent DE COINTET, Antoine MARIOTTI, Stéphane SAPORITO

On 14 July 2015, thousands of Iranians took to the streets of Tehran to express their joy after the "nuclear deal" had been signed between Iran and the West.

Ten months later, have these expectations been justified? Would this historic agreement be a turning point for Iran after thirty years of isolation on the international stage?
From the deal's signature until March 2016 when the parliamentary elections saw the victory of the reformers - the film follows everyday life in Tehran, observes Iranian politics as well as international diplomacy and business at work...
