CLAIRE, A TENACIOUS LADY

Director(s): Danièle RICHARD

Writer(s): Danièle RICHARD

Claire Garguier, actress-cum-presenter-organiser, is a forty-something small bundle of energy. In her professional career and her voluntary work, she has always been in strategic positions that allowed her to pass on much-needed information within the deaf community.

Claire illuminates the screen with her cheerful personality and her particular sign language. She is a child of what is referred to in France as the « Réveil sourd », a kind of sign language revival movement that started in the 1980's.
For the last thirty years she has been a witness and a participant of the movement and this portrait reflects Claire at her best - lively, clear and helpful.
