ACCENTUS: TRANSCRIPTIONS

Director(s): Andy SOMMER

Writer(s): Andy SOMMER

A feast for eyes and ears! The magical sound of the "Accentus Choir", directed by Laurence Equilbey, combined with the unusual visuals in this creation by Andy Sommer, gives this film a dimension that takes the viewer far beyond the "orchestral experience".

The Accentus Choir shot to fame by transcribing some of the most beautiful orchestral works ever composed for the human voice. This vibrant two-part film is centred around the life of the choir, "painting" their music in generous brush strokes on a high-definition canvas.
