EP 1
Change the world or not? In Joigny, 10,000 inhabitants, Mathilde and Jade would like to give it a go, but it's complicated. For starters, they need to gather enough pupils to organize a five-minute demonstration in the college courtyard! Alain, the winegrower starts harvesting without much soul-searching while Massimo, is getting over an organic burnout.

EP 2
Massimo is in a fix. He works at the city's waste union but the idea of throwing away the slightest object throws him into a panic! Will the city's compost project help him get over his distress?
Coraline and Jocelyn believe they found the solution to their torment: leave everything behind. Mathilde and Jade fill the waste bins... to avoid thinking about it all.

EP 3
Voting day. Day of doubt. Day for pruning. A virus is approaching. Alain prunes his vines because they need pruning. Ludivine and Sullivan, prune the apple trees, because it feels good.
