LOCKWOOD BROTHERS (The)

Director(s): Fabienne ISSARTEL

Francis, the pianist, has been somewhat in the shade of Didier, the younger of the two brothers... Before his crucial encounter with Grappeli, fro Didier there was but his older brother - so in love with jazz that he gave up classical music in order to become one of the most sought-afetr Fernch recording artists. Then, Didier became a star, THE jazz violinist who performed in the most prestigious concert halls all over the world. And, sometimes, between two planes, the brothers meet for a rare moment of playing together. This time, it's in a small concert hall, practically a concert for friends. Three "violin/piano" improvisations of well-known pieces. The two brothers from Calais are as much in tune on stage as in real life!
