

GASTON MONNERVILLE, THE MAN WHO DEFIED DE GAULLE

Director(s): Alexandre DOLGOROUKY, Barsha BAUER

Writer(s): Alexandre DOLGOROUKY, Barsha BAUER

What are the chances of France having a black president?

As the extreme right-wing Front National regularly increases its share of the vote in elections, the idea seems unthinkable, but for many years Gaston Monnerville led the French senate and seemed the most likely challenger to the old war hero, De Gaulle.
