GRANADOS & DELGADO, ANARCHISTS UNDER FRANCO

Director(s): Lala GOMA, Xavier MONTANYA

Writer(s): Lala GOMA, Xavier MONTANYA

Madrid August 1963 : at the Carabanchel prison, two young anarchists are secretly condemned to death by court martial for two murders committed on July 29 at Sindicatos. In 1995, two Spanish anarchists living in Paris reveal that they had in fact committed the 1963 murders. The film shows in detail the truth of politics under the Franco regime. It was carried out with the help of Resistance witnesses who were unwilling accomplices to a ruthless justice.
