

MACHETE AND HOLY WATER

Director(s): Jean-Pascal BUBLEX

Writer(s): Jean-Pascal BUBLEX, Mathieu SARFATI

Twenty years after the genocide that claimed the lives of 800,000 Tutsis in Rwanda, many criminals live undisturbed in Europe today - among them, three members of the clergy who have been sentenced to life imprisonment by the Rwandan courts or the International Criminal Tribunal in Arusha for their active participation in the massacres.
They live in France, officiate as priests in their parishes and had been welcomed by various Dioceses upon their arrival via veritable exfiltration channels established by the religious authorities in Rwanda, DRC and Kenya.
This film returns to the scene of genocide retracing the journey of these three clergymen and trying to understand how they were involved in these terrible events. The actions and personal stories of these three men throw into question the responsibility of the institution church itself.
AVAILABLE FOR SCREENING: the French version only.

Categorie(s): Topical interest & anniversaries, History & Current Affairs, New Programmes

Tag(s): War, Africa

Producer(s): POINT DU JOUR

Coproducer(s): TURBULENCES Productions, France 3 "Pièces à conviction"

Length: 1x55 / Format: One-off

Original version: French

Versions available: International

Nationality: France, 2014

Rights: all media, world

Support(s): HD Cam

http://www.pointdujour-international.com/catalogueFiche.php?idFiche=38261&lang=en