

THROUGH MICHEL'S EYES

Director(s): Pierre-Louis LEVACHER

Writer(s): Pierre-Louis LEVACHER

Michel Roman has been deaf and a great sportsman all his life, but fate dealt him a terrible blow in 2011, when he had just turned 60.

An accidental fall made him quadriplegic.

How is he coping today? How has his relationship with his family evolved, and that with his friends since the accident?

What impact has the arrival of Cedric, his nurse and also deaf, had on his daily life?

Through the story of Michel and his friends and family, this film explores the consequences of such a loss of autonomy and the means available in order to regain some of it.
