

Les OEuvres vives - Diary at the Water's Edge

Director(s): Bertrand LATOUCHE

Writer(s): Bertrand LATOUCHE

Les OEuvres vives - Diary at the Water's Edge
We dream about a life. And then it goes otherwise.
The important thing is to never stop dreaming.
They came together like members of the same crew - a few men, a woman and a young girl. They became friends...
From the deck of their boat in the shipyard, they look into the distance, searching the horizon...waiting to cast off again sometime soon, but they are not in a hurry... In a way, they have already weighed anchor.

" Les OEuvres vives " is an intimate film set in the outdoors. The story of a group of people struggling with practical but also their own personal issues, trying to forge a different existence for themselves and to be authors of their destiny.

AVAILABLE FOR VIEWING: French version only (52')

The press:
"A magnificent poetic excursion (...). An ode to freedom that also gives some thought to the notion of break-up, be it of a professional or romantic nature, which is sometimes necessary in order to rebuild your life or change course..."
(Camille Langlade - Le Monde)

Categorie(s): Society & Human Interest
Tag(s): Philosophy, Personal Viewpoint, feature documentary

Producer(s): LES FILMS DU BALIBARI
Coproducer(s): FRANCE 3 Pays de la Loire, Les Docks du Film
Length: 1x70, 1x52 / Format: One-off
Original version: French
Nationality: France, 2018
Support(s): HD file

http://www.pointdujour-international.com/catalogueFiche.php?idFiche=38415&lang=en