

FROM SEVERINE TO SEVERIN

Director(s): David BOISSEAUX-CHICAL, Vina HIRIDJEE

When she was a child, she was called Séverine. Today aged 32, he calls himself Séverin. But going from one to the other, from feminine to masculine, is the result of a process that began in her childhood.

Having felt like a man very early on, Séverin had begun years ago to physically transform his body with the help of prescribed hormones.
This is the portrait of a deaf man who has felt the need to change his gender and is now fighting for a change of identity on his legal and civil status.
