

DEAF AND LITERATURE (The)

Director(s): Veronique BERTHONNEAU

Writer(s): Véronique BERTHONNEAU

"L'Oeil et la Main" comes onto the set of "La Grande Librairie", the literary programme of French public broadcaster France 5, for a special show hosted by Sandrine Herman.

For this occasion, she surrounded herself with deaf authors: writers, author of comics, translators or poets... The deaf have often a very delicate relationship with written French. Yet, there are some who have overcome this complex relationship by inventing different ways to put their thoughts, their creativity onto paper...
What are their motivations, what drives them and what holds them back? How do they relate to text, words, images? How do they make use of the bridge between sign language and written text?
