Director(s): Jean-Philippe URBACH

Writer(s): Jean-Philippe URBACH

Marie-Laure, 50 years old, is hearing and lives in Paris.

In 2011, without really knowing why, she decided to learn sign language. Sasha is deaf, and spent the first 6 years of his life in an orphanage in India without sign language.

After a long adoption process, Marie-Laure's destiny meets that of Sasha. They walk towards each other, sometimes with difficulty and hesitation. On a daily basis, both build the bond that will make them into mother and son.
