

TRANSLATE, TO PUSH BACK BOUNDARIES

Director(s): Marylène CHARRIERE

Writer(s): Marylène CHARRIERE

Radia Darkaoui, a 28-year-old deaf woman, has a long-held dream...becoming a standard French / French Sign Language translator.

She wants to put written French at the service of the deaf and thus make accessible to them domains from which some still remain excluded, such as literature, current affairs or exhibitions.

For Radia, it's also a question of taking her destiny into her own hands by embarking on this new profession which offers many opportunities. Marylène Charrière paints for us the portrait of a passionate and determined young woman.
