

15. A TIME FOR WOMEN

Director(s): Clarisse FELETIN

Writer(s): Clarisse FELETIN

With the Weinstein scandal in 2017 followed by the #MeToo movement, the voice of women has been liberated. Especially on the Internet and with social networks - tools that make debates and pertinent demands accessible to deaf women.

Leîsse, Charlotte, Louise and Ezra are part of this new generation of deaf feminists. They are active, stick messages on the walls of our cities, set up information campaigns ... If the previous generation saw themselves as deaf persons first and woman only second, this "new wave", do they feel twice the activists? A film that will be shown on 8 March on the occasion of International Women's Rights Day.
