

MELTDOWN - An Eco-soap (eps. 7 - 10)

Director(s): Christophe KILIAN, Laure NOUALHAT

Our documentary series follows the inhabitants of Joigny and above all, our 10 characters, throughout the seasons in their daily struggle with their convictions and their actions.

Episodes 7 to 10 (click on each button on the 'player'):
EP 7
Eric is exhausted. The lack of positive action by the political powers is eating away at him. He goes on hunger strike. Mathilde and Jade tell the mayor that they collected the town's waste in his place.

EP 8
Pascale organizes workshops for making stewed fruit to alleviate climate vertigo. Eric suffers from vertigo himself as he continues his hunger strike, his only sustenance being herbal tea. Jade decides trying to make her own dress.

EP 9
Jade's family must overcome an ordeal. Will she question her way of life? Jocelyn is elated. He passes an essential milestone of autonomy. Failure, or a new start, Ludivine and Sullivan want to leave Joigny.

EP 10
Jade is forced to decide on what's essential. Coraline and Jocelyn stock up. Eric and the hunger strikers are counting the days.
